Compare how	poets present	in	[named
poem j	l and one other	poem.

Give a similarity about the poets' ideas based on the topic, starting with Both. e.g. Both Armitage and Owen illustrate the effects of war on soldiers.

Then give more detail about their idea, starting with However and using whereas (or both again if the details are the same). e.g. However, Armitage demonstrates the traumatic long-term effects of war on the minds of soldiers, whereas Owen focuses on the mental and physical suffering in the trenches during WWI. Focus on the methods one poet uses: start with the macro method then analyse the micro methods. e.g. To convey his ideas, Armitage creates a first person monologue from a soldier's perspective. Within this, he uses hyperbole when... Furthermore, his use of the metaphor... suggests... Finally, the colloquial language such as... might have the effect of...

Do the same for the second poem, starting with a connective based on whether the macro method is similar or different to the first poet. e.g. On the other hand, Owen conveys his ideas by juxtaposing the movement of the weather with the motionless soldiers. Within this, he...
