INTRODUCTION: #NAW2026

What is National Apprenticeship Week?

National Apprenticeship Week (NAW) is the biggest week in the apprenticeships and skills calendar!

It is an annual, week-long celebration of apprenticeships and everyone involved in promoting awareness of them, including apprentices, employers, schools, training providers and government.

The week brings together the entire apprenticeship community to celebrate the value, benefit and opportunity that apprenticeships bring.

Key facts about the week:

- 2026 will be the 19th National Apprenticeship Week, having originally started in 2007.
- The week runs from Monday 9th – Sunday 15th February 2026.
- It includes thousands of activities and events, both in person and online, across England.
- There will be a huge media presence, with interviews and news articles throughout the week.
- Each year, the week has a theme. The 2026 theme is Skills for Life.
- The Department for Education has released a series of toolkits:
 - Employer & stakeholders toolkit
 - Schools, colleges & training providers toolkit
 - Apprentices, learners & parents toolkit
 - T Levels Thursday toolkit

Why should schools and colleges get involved?

Schools and colleges play a key role in ensuring that students, their families and teachers are informed about apprenticeships (and other post-16 and post-18 options).

The week provides a central focus and opportunity to position apprenticeships as a positive and exciting option, showcasing the wide range of employers, apprentices and their success stories.

ASSEMBLY IDEAS

ACTIVITY IDEAS	LINKS	PREP. REQUIRED / NOTES	MINUTES
Assembly film Show this animated film answering some of the key questions around apprenticeships (updated in October 2025). The film covers everything from the basics, through to the range of opportunities available, the levels and how to find vacancies.	 amapps.uk/assembly-film	Film includes a voiceover and music, but if audio is not available, it is also subtitled. It is better if you can play it with the sound on though.	5 mins
Assembly speakers We know how valuable external speakers can be to inspire your students. Our guide, 'Sourcing speakers for your students', covers different ideas for sourcing speakers, and makes suggestions for how to prepare speakers and students to ensure maximum impact.	 amazingapprenticeships.com/resources/sourcing-speakers-for-your-students	Sourcing and preparing speakers can require quite a lot of preparation.	Depends on assembly slot and speaker
Assemblies, films and presentations Visit our How We Can Help Schools and Colleges page and explore the Assemblies and Presentations section.	 amazingapprenticeships.com/how-we-can-help-schools-colleges	Films include sound and music. They are also subtitled but are better with sound on if available.	Varied

LUNCHTIME AND CROSS-SCHOOL/COLLEGE ACTIVITIES

ACTIVITY IDEAS	LINKS	PREP. REQUIRED	MINUTES
Apprenticeship stall Set up a stall in a 'high traffic' area with lots of apprenticeship information. Give students the chance to ask questions and explore resources.	 amapps.uk/resources	Plan which resources to use and print them.	30-60 mins
Lunch and learn Invite past pupils / local employers to run an interactive demonstration each lunchtime, allowing students to find out more about apprenticeships.	 See page 20-21 on Sourcing Speakers.	Inviting speakers, making the arrangements, publicising it to students / inviting them to attend. Managing the set up and evaluation.	30-60 mins
Run a competition Encourage students to get creative by setting a subject level or school/college-wide competition about apprenticeships. Students could design a poster, create a resource about a local business, interview a current apprentice and create a case study - the opportunities are endless. Invite a local employer to judge the competition and give out a prize for the winner!	 You could use the resources on your website, in classrooms and corridors to inspire your students. amapps.uk/resources	Deciding the competition, which students and year groups will enter, and how it will be judged. APPRENTICESHIP ARCADE

The Apprenticeship Arcade features a suite of fun and engaging games for students, with new games added for 2026.

amazingapprenticeships.com/apprenticeship-arcade

New and updated games launch
January 2026

Engage students in your classroom, or set them enjoyable (yet educational) home learning tasks through the brilliant Apprenticeship Arcade. The suite of games provides interactive and fun ways for students to explore and learn about apprenticeships, whilst working in groups or individually.

Please note that some games will require a small amount of setting up beforehand, such as registering for a free account or ensuring that teams are created and students allocated into different groups. This will help to save you time in your lesson and should ensure that any potential problems such as firewalls or software updates can be sorted before your lesson starts.

A-Z OF APPRENTICESHIPS

Amazing Apprenticeships celebrates International Women's Day, held on 8th March each year, by recognising and sharing the inspirational stories of apprentices.

Use our 'A-Z of women apprentices at work' to inspire your students and colleagues to see the wide range of apprenticeship roles being undertaken by women, and learn more about the variety of organisations that they are working in.

The flashcard pack showcases apprentices in roles from A for Asset Management Apprentice, D for Dance Instructor all the way through to W for Wind Turbine Engineer and Z for Zoo Keeper! Each apprentice flashcard also has an accompanying case study where you can learn more about the apprentice and their role.

The flashcards and case studies can be used in lessons, in a display and even for a treasure hunt as we know some resourceful careers staff have done in the past!

BBC BITESIZE CAREERS

EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

There will be a large number of events happening in the weeks leading up to National Apprenticeship Week, and throughout the week itself. They are free of charge to attend and cover a variety of topics.

NATIONAL EVENTS CALENDAR

A full events calendar, featuring thousands of different events and activities happening throughout the country will be available to view and search. It will be updated throughout the lead up to NAW so keep checking back.

naw.appawards.co.uk/events/map

ONLINE EVENTS

There are lots of online events you could participate in at your school/college, or share with students and parents/carers. Find out what national and local employers, training providers (independent providers, as well as colleges and universities) and careers organisations are doing by looking at their websites and social media.

YOUR EVENTS AND ACTIVITIES

If you are running any events or activities that external students and parents or carers could attend, such as an Apprenticeship Fair, publicise it widely. Contact your Careers Hub to see if they could notify other schools, and don't forget to add it to the national events calendar (see above).

SHARE YOUR SUCCESS

Don't forget to share how your events and activities went by creating a case study for our Officially Amazing platform. See page 5 of this guide for more details.

SOURCING SPEAKERS

Hearing from current and former apprentices, and apprentice employers is a brilliant way to engage potential apprentices. Here are some ideas for sourcing inspirational speakers.

SOURCING SPEAKERS

There are a variety of ways you could source current or former apprentices and apprentice employers to speak to your students.

YOUR NETWORKS

- Contact former students who you know are now apprentices and invite them to come back to share their apprenticeship story.
- Reach out to your school or college Enterprise Adviser, who may be able to help or could signpost you to other local employers.
- Reach out to your staff, governor and parent/carer community and ask if they know, employ or work with any apprentices.
- Ask your current year 12 and 13 students if they have any friends who are apprentices.
- Post your request in local online groups such as Facebook and LinkedIn to see if there are any apprentices or apprentice employers in the area who would be willing to join you.
- Share on your social media that you are looking for speakers.
- Contact local colleges who are apprenticeship training providers and ask if they have any students who are doing apprenticeships, or work with any apprentice employers.
- Contact your local Careers Hub.
- Contact local employers who you know employ apprentices.

APPRENTICESHIP AMBASSADORS

In each region there is an Apprenticeship Ambassador network of apprentices and employers who may be willing to come out and support your school or college.

You can find your local network and contact details here:
apprenticeships.gov.uk/influencers/yaan-regional-networks

SOURCING SPEAKERS

PREPARING YOUR SPEAKERS

Once you have secured a speaker, make sure in advance of the session that you have communicated all of the required information about the event and how it will run, including the following:

- The date, time, duration and location of the session, and if they should arrive early to set up before the students join the session.
- How many students they will be presenting to, and any additional needs of the group that may need to be considered.
- Where they can park, if you have reserved parking for them and where they should report to e.g. reception.
- The name and telephone number of the contact person on the day.
- To send in advance any slides they want to use and to let you know if they will need sound or internet access for their presentation.
- You reassure them there will be staff on hand supervising the students and to support with any IT requirements.
- You know if they have any dietary requirements so you can offer them refreshments.

PREPARING YOUR STUDENTS

It can be beneficial to help students to prepare ahead of any external speakers coming in. This could be through an assembly briefing, form/tutor session, or could be a more formal piece of home learning. Encouraging students to learn about the speaker in advance, to undertake some research by visiting their website and to think about preparing their own questions can work well.

BUILDING A RELATIONSHIP

If you'd like your speaker to come in again, make sure you ask them if you can keep in touch about future events, then contact them on an appropriately regular basis to thank them again, and keep them updated on future events and any apprenticeship successes following their session.

You could also ask them to:

- Attend careers fairs.
- Offer work experience.
- Attend parent/carer career events.
- Feature in careers newsletters.
- Sponsor an event or maybe even a student award or experience.
- Put you in touch with other employers.

HOSTING A PARENTS/CARERS EVENT - A CHECKLIST

Use this quick checklist if you are considering hosting an apprenticeships event for parents and carers in your school or college.

- Check the school diary and select an appropriate date and time.
- Book the hall or another suitable space.
- Approach guest speakers. For example this could include; local employers, past-students who are now apprentices, local experts, your school/college Enterprise Adviser.
- Add the event to your school calendar and set up a registration/booking system if needed.
- Invite key staff, including the Senior Leadership Team.
- Invite your parents/carers. For example this could include; adding it to your website, arranging for messages to go out via social media and/or Parentmail, including it within newsletters, sending out personal invitations, alerting students through assemblies/tutorials.
- Consider which of the free resources you could print or send out in advance.
- Make arrangements for refreshments.
- Liaise with your IT team about the equipment required.
- Arrange for presentations or a recording to be made available afterwards.
- Evaluate the success - formally or informally - and record the impact of the event.
